

1. What are the three main STI instrument implementation challenges faced in your country? (each answer within two words)

1. Logframe work; 2. Definition on time for implementation; 3. The Elaboration on an expected Theory of change; 4. Budgeting for the STI policy.

Change resistance
Cloudy vision
Fragmented departments

Economic currently dependent on oil and gas, lack of legal framework

No proper implementation strategy
No clear understanding of the STI instruments
Lack of instruments

Bottom up approaches and lack of commitment of stakeholders competition with other priorities

1. Lack of clear STI indicators
2. Lack of coordination in data management
3. Lack of resources to execute the planned intervention programmes

- Leadership- Managerial- Governance

Lack of legal instruments in support of STI policy implementation

1. What are the three main STI instrument implementation challenges faced in your country? (each answer within two words)

Inadequate resources
Development & Implementation disconnect Change of priorities

lack Political support, No plan for implementation, lack of Capacities building for STI

Bottom-up approach funding fieldwork decentralization (implementation STI in rural zone)

Lack indicators
Financing
Good plan

Inadequate access to the required resources
Lack of coordination among the implementing actors Weak popularization of STI among the stakeholders

Delays due to clearances from relevant ministries; lack of technical expertise

weak legal mechanisms

2. Which policy instrument is more difficult to implement in your country? (you can choose three options)

