Six functions were identified in the background document #1, “10-Year Framework of Programmes on Sustainable Consumption and Production (10YFP): A review of Options for Institutional Structure”: (1) Catalyze political, technical, and financial support through common goals and vision, (2) Build stronger bridges between communities by providing means to share knowledge and network, (3) Support mainstreaming SCP into national policies, the UN and others’ work, (4) Support collaboration platforms and partnerships, (5) Establish links, support financing and encourage cooperation and coordination among various technical assistance programmes, (6) Help raise awareness and support civil society engagement. Are there any the 10YFP should not support? Are there some missing? Which? Once functions are agreed upon, key mechanisms to address these functions could start being explored.*
