1. Location Information

Hong Kong International Airport

- Arrival and Departure

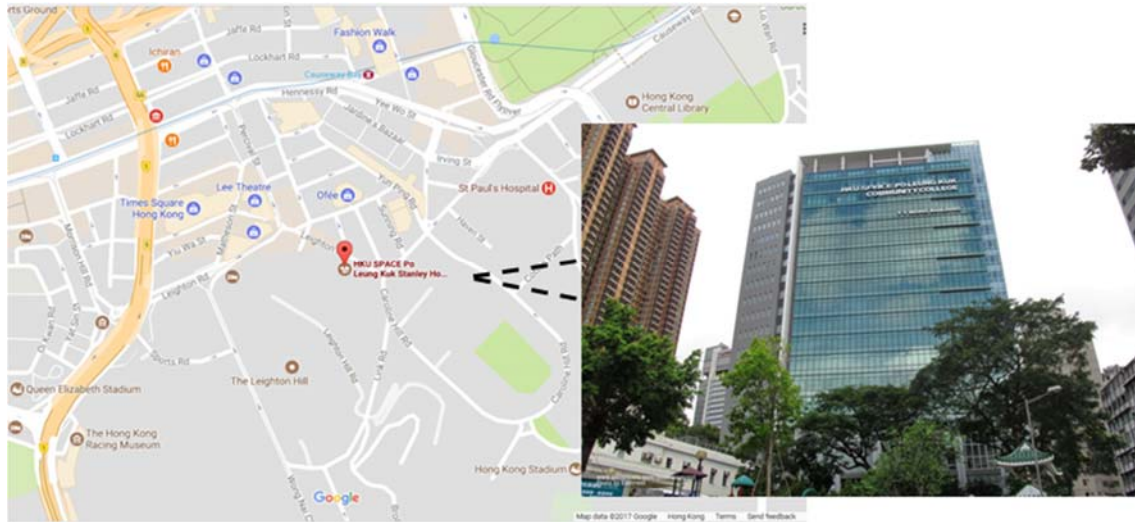

HKIA is located on the island of Chek Lap Kok. A HK$50 billion investment, it has been one of the largest engineering and architectural projects in the world. Since HKIA commenced its operations in July 1998, it adheres to four principles – Safety, Operational Efficiency, Customer Convenience and Environment. This commitment has earned it the recognition as the world's best airport for more than 60 times.

HKIA is the world's busiest cargo gateway and one of the world's busiest passenger airports. In 2016, it handled 70.5 million passengers and 4.52 million tonnes of air cargo. It is connected to 220 destinations through around 1,100 daily flights by more than 100 airlines.

HKIA is a two-terminal and two-runway facility generating enormous social and economic value for Hong Kong. The 73,000-strong airport community serves as the key contributor to Hong Kong's position as a leading international and regional aviation centre.

HKU Space Po Leung Kuk Stanley Ho Community College (HPSHCC) Campus

- Venue for February 10

Founded by the University of Hong Kong School of Professional and Continuing Education (HKU SPACE) and Po Leung Kuk in 2006, HPSHCC is one of the finest community colleges in the region. Since its inception, HPSHCC has been playing an important role in providing sub-degree higher education in Hong Kong.

The College has received a donation from businessman and philanthropist Dr. Stanley Ho, to support its teaching and learning activities, and the whole person development of our students. In appreciation of Dr. Ho's contribution and generosity, the College has been officially renamed as "HKU SPACE Po Leung Kuk Stanley Ho Community College (HPSHCC)" in 2015.

Conveniently located in the heart of the city, Causeway Bay, the campus can be easily accessed. The 19-storey campus building covers a gross floor area of approximately 17,000 square metres, and has been equipped with state-of-the-art teaching and learning facilities and supported by an advanced computing network system.

Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Center (HKCEC)

- Venue for February 11&12

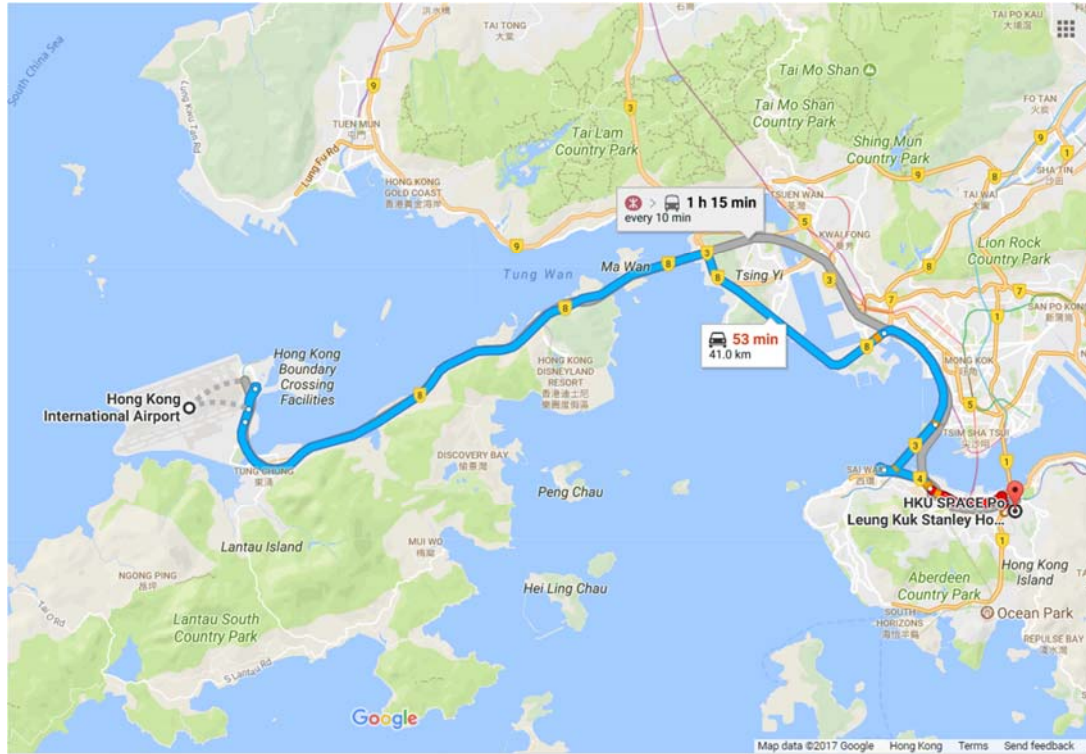

HKCEC is a major event and exhibition venue in Hong Kong. Located in Wan Chai North facing the Victoria Harbour, it is one of the Hong Kong landmarks. It is linked by covered walkways to nearby hotels and commercial buildings.

Numerous functions are held at the HKCEC each year, including exhibitions, conventions/meetings, banquets, Hong Kong Book Fair and other special events. The centre hosts more than 45 international trade fairs for buyers from more than 100 countries each year, including the world's largest leather fair and watch and clock fair. It also served as the site of the Hong Kong handover ceremony in 1997 and hosted the Sixth WTO Ministerial Conference from 13–18 December 2005.

8. Highlight Attractions

Golden Bauhinia Square (and HKCEC)

The bauhinia is the emblem of Hong Kong. The Forever Blooming Bauhinia Sculpture that gives the Expo Promenade the commonly used name, Golden Bauhinia Square, was a gift from the Central Government to mark the 1997 Handover — an occasion that held tremendous significance for the world's largest nation and that stands out as a landmark event in 20th century history.

Pak Tai Temple at Wan Chai

Officially named Yuk Hui Kung (Jade Void Palace), this temple was built by Wan Chai residents in 1863. The Pak Tai statue inside the main hall is three metres tall and about 400 years old, much older than the temple itself. On either side there are halls for other deities, including the Three Pristine Ones, Lung Mo (Dragon Mother), and the God of Wealth. Don't miss the murals inside the halls, which portray scenes of life in olden times — including the staging of a Cantonese opera.

The East (Wan Chai)

Queen's Road East (QRE) in Wan Chai epitomises Hong Kong's fusion characteristics: it seamlessly blends ancient Chinese architecture and Western colonial buildings; Asian and international cuisine; quirky antique shops and luxury boutiques.

Amid this cultural mêlée sits shopping and dining complex The East, which is earning itself plaudits for its upmarket European restaurants and speciality Asian dining, including Hong Kong's only revolving restaurant where diners can feast their eyes on the panoramic views while enjoying a tantalising buffet. The zone encompasses the Hopewell Centre, QRE Plaza, Wu Chung House and GARDENEast. Every year it holds the FUNtastic QRE Festival, featuring the popular wine walk and the Discovery Walk on QRE, with free interactive games, food booths, live music performances, art exhibitions and cultural events.

Times Square

People come from far and wide to shop in Causeway Bay, and they'll rarely leave without stepping foot inside its grand prize – Times Square. Sitting on top of a MTR Causeway Bay Station exit, the district's largest shopping mall has 230 stores spanning mid-price to luxury fashion and accessories, electronics and toys, two department stores, a supermarket and over 20 restaurants dishing out top-grade Chinese, Korean, Japanese and Western fare.

You can easily recognise the mall by the elaborate displays and photogenic installations it sets up temporarily at its entrance, especially during festivals and other celebrations. Hundreds of thousands of people gather here to countdown to a new year every 31 December.

Hong Kong Central Library

The Hong Kong Central Library was established in 2001. Under the purview of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department of the HKSARG, it is the largest public library in the Hong Kong public libraries system in terms of floor areas, library services and with the most comprehensive collection.

Consisting of 12 storeys, the Hong Kong Central Library has a gross area of 9,400 sq. metres and a floor area of 33,800 sq. metres. The arch-shaped entrance at the front elevation represents the Gate of Knowledge is always open. The logo design of the Hong Kong Central Library, featuring a circle, a square and a triangle, was inspired by the Chinese philosophies of "The Sky is round and the Earth square" and "Harmony of Man with Nature". The three graphic shapes stand for the sky, the earth and the accumulation of knowledge respectively.
