

Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on Sustainable Development Financing

Experts' bios

Latin America and Caribbean Group:

Saúl Weisleder (Costa Rica)

H.E. Mr. Saúl Weisleder is currently Ambassador and the Deputy Permanent Representative of Costa Rica to the UN in New York, where he is mostly engaged in development issues. In Costa Rica, he was a Member of Parliament (1994-98) and President of that body, where he also chaired the Budgetary Committee, the Special Committee for Financial Reform and other committees on social and economic issues. He was an economic advisor for the Costa Rican Banking Association, after having been General Manager of a Second level Credit Union Bank (Banco Federado de Cooperativas de Ahorro y Credito). Mr. Weisleder was the Chair of the department of Economics of the National University (in Costa Rica) where he taught various courses in the area of Economics. He graduated in Economics and Sociology from the University of Costa Rica and specialized in Development Studies from Sussex University (UK), where he obtained a Master of Philosophy degree in development Studies.